Mr. Rahul is an accomplished civil servant from the Indian Railway Traffic Service (IRTS), 2010 batch, with extensive experience in administration, strategic planning, operations management, commercial functions, and digital transformation. Over the course of his career, he has successfully combined policy-level insights with ground-level operational expertise, contributing significantly to governance, infrastructure development, and technology-driven reforms within the Indian Railways and the Government of India. Key Assignments Held Deputy Secretary, NITI Aayog – Provided policy inputs, inter-ministerial coordination, and strategic planning support at the highest levels of government. Senior Divisional Operations Manager (Sr.DOM) & Senior Divisional Commercial Manager (Sr.DCM), Northern Railway – Directed large-scale railway operations and commercial functions, with responsibilities spanning passenger and freight management, safety compliance, resource optimization, and revenue generation. Deputy Chief Project Manager (Dy. CPM), Centre for Railway Information Systems (CRIS) – Spearheaded IT-enabled reforms and digital transformation initiatives, harnessing technology to enhance efficiency, transparency, and service delivery. Educational Background Mr. Rahul graduated from Hindu College, University of Delhi, and went on to study Law at the Campus Law Centre, University of Delhi. His academic foundation in humanities and law, combined with his professional expertise, provides him with a well-rounded perspective on governance, policy, and organizational management. Professional Strengths Leadership in governance and administration Strategic planning and policy formulation Railway operations and commercial management Digital transformation and IT-enabled reforms Inter-ministerial coordination and infrastructure planning With a proven record of leadership, innovation, and public service, Mr. Rahul continues to contribute meaningfully to nation-building through his expertise and commitment.