Swadesh Kumar Singh

Shri Swadesh Kumar Singh is an IRTS officer of 1999 batch. He is M.Sc. in Mathematics from IT/Delhi and LLB from Lucknow University. He has held various positions in Operations, Safety and Commercial Departments in SR, SECR, NER & UPMetro Rail Corporation.

He has worked at all positions of Operations department including AOM, DOM, STM, Sr. DOMs and Dy COM/Goods and also worked in the commercial department asACMand SrDCM and in Safety as SrDOM/G.

He has also worked as General Manager(Operations) in UP Metro Rail Corporation, looking after Lucknow, Kanpur and Agra metro projects.

During the tenure as General Manager(Operations) in UP metro Rail Corporation, he was pivotal in testing and commissioning of new metro projects in the cities of Kanpur and Lucknow in 2021 and 2024 respectively. Kanpur Metro achieved the distinction of the fastest built metro project in the country. He was instrumental in world class training delivery of the entire staff of UPMRC as well as started training of other organizations at UPMRC. He has experience in running train operation under CBTC system with both 25KV OHE and 750V DC traction. He led various initiatives due to which, Ridership of Lucknow metro project was increased by 60% under his leadership. His case study on "Success story of UPMRC in handling Covid-19" has been published by Emerald Publishing House, London.

He has done Advance Management course from ICLIF Centre for Leadership & Governance/Kuala Lumpur and Customer Strategies from INSEAD/Singapore. He has also attended Mid-career training programme at LBSNAA, Mussoorie.

He has received General Manager'sAwards for Outstanding Service for the record seven times at SECR and NER apart from DG/NAIR's gold medal during training and many other awards.